The Association of the Electricity Supply Industry of East Asia and the Western Pacific (AESIEAP) is an international organization in the power industry in East Asia and Western Pacific. It has been devoted to promoting exchanges and cooperation in the power industry in Asia-Pacific region for years, and the Conference on the Electric Power Supply Industry (CEPSI) hosted by AESIEAP biennially has become one of the most appealing and influential international events in the energy and power industry in Asia-Pacific region and even the world. The 24th CEPSI will be held in China in October 2023, the second time for such a power industry gala to take place in China after 20 years.

Under the theme of “Low Carbon Energy Powering a Green Future”, the 24th CEPSI will invite leaders and experts in the energy and power industry around the world to review the status quo and envisage the trends of energy and power industry transformation in Asia-Pacific, share the technological and management innovations and best practices, and discuss the strategies and solutions for sustainable development and mutual beneficial cooperation. The number of participants is expected to exceed 5,000 and the professionals from 18 AESIEAP member countries and regions will submit their papers and communicate during the conference. Concurrently with the CEPSI, technical exhibition will also be organized to demonstrate the new technologies, products and concepts of power industries and attract eyes on the future development in energy transformation and upgrading, clean and low-carbon energy development, and intelligent and green applications.

Organization (GEIDCO)

On behalf of the Association of the Electricity Supply Industry of East Asia and the Western Pacific (AESIEAP) and the Organizing Committee of the 24th Conference on the Electric Power Supply Industry (CEPSI 2023), it is my great pleasure to invite you to CEPSI 2023 to be held in Xiamen, China in October 2023.

Green and low-carbon is now the consensus of global energy development. With the increasing proportion of electricity in the end-use energy consumption, electric power becomes the most important energy form for the sustainable development of the human society, strongly supported by various upgrading green and low-carbon power technologies. The Asia-Pacific region is the region with the most dynamic economic growth in the world, with strong demand for energy and electricity. There are promising prospects for the cooperation in such fields as the development and utilization of green energy, the interconnection of energy facilities, the innovation of green and low-carbon technologies, the opening and integration of energy markets and the joint response to the climate change.

With the theme of Low-carbon Energy Powering a Green Future, CEPSI 2023, a high-profile international event in the energy and power sector, will join hands with colleagues of AESIEAP members and the international world to explore the energy development prospects and solutions to the key issues, to share ideas and experiences leading the power industry growth, and to build a power community with shared future in the region of East Asia and the Western Pacific.

I sincerely invite friends of energy and power industries in the region and the rest of the world to join us in Xiamen, to witness our efforts on powering a green, sustainable and beautiful future.

Looking forward to seeing you in Xiamen at CEPSI 2023!

WELCOME CEPSI 2023 CHINA

Exhibition Program

① Title of the exhibition

The Exhibition of the 24th Conference on the Electric Power Supply Industry (CEPSI)

② Exhibition categories

Power development achievements

Thermal power generating units and associated equipment

Hydropower generating units and associated equipment

Nuclear power station technologies and equipment

PV, CSP and wind power technologies and equipment

Energy storage, hydrogen energy and fuel cell technologies and equipment

Integrated intelligent energy and Energy Internet technologies, equipment and solutions

Other innovative power generation technologies and equipment

UHV power transmission and transformation technologies and equipment

Urban and rural power grid construction and improvement, power supply and consumption technologies and equipment

Power dispatch and communication technologies and equipment

Power energy-saving technologies and equipment

Power environmental protection technologies and equipment

Distributed power generation equipment and grid-connected operation technologies

Power metering & test instruments and technologies

Other technologies and equipment related to power

③ Booth fee

Standard booth: USD5500 / 9sqm

Raw Space : USD550/sqm, 36sqm at minimum

④ Apply for exhibition

The exhibitors shall fill in the exhibition application form and send it to CEPSI organizer by email before September 15, 2023 and the formal contract will be concluded subsequently.
